

Wetland network

Scattered across the catchment, wetlands provide vital resting and feeding habitat for Hooded Plovers as they journey from inland salt lakes to the coast.

Salt and freshwater lakes, swamps, damplands . . . no two wetlands are alike. Collectively these unique habitats support a diverse array of wetland life and provide essential resources for migratory waterbirds.

