

OUR COMMUNITY CARES ABOUT NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT IN ONE YEAR WE ACHIEVED

120 HA

120 ha of threatened ecological communities protected from Phytophthora dieback disease

5847 HA

5847 ha of remnant and fragmented habitat protected with 132 kilometres of fencing

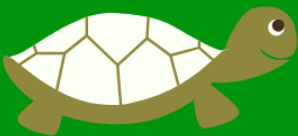

8017 people attended 252 events including field days demonstrations, training, workshops, community awareness, regional planning.

185 HA

185 ha of revegetation including priority landscapes.

Protection of our South Coast RAMSAR wetlands of international importance, coastal and waterway management

16200 HA

16200 ha of feral pest control to protect our unique wildlife

50 FARM PARTNERSHIPS

50 farming entities partnered in achieving best practice sustainable farming, improving productivity, increasing healthy soils, managing erosion and soil acidification and reducing off-site impacts.

408 HA

408 ha of invasive weed control to protect our natural habitats

Cross regional collaborations with our NRMWA partners to maximise impact